

Sardar Patel College

Report on Centralized Selection / Job Fair Held on 11th December 2024

Event Overview:

A Centralized Selection / Job Fair was held on 11th December 2024 with the primary aim of bridging the gap between employers and job seekers. The event was convened by Mr. Paul Edward, Assistant Director, Board of Apprenticeship Training (Southern Region), Chennai and inaugurated by the esteemed A. Pullaiah, Secretary of the Department of Technical Education, Government of Telangana, in the presence of key dignitaries, including Mr. Swamy, Deputy Director of the Department of Technical Education, and Mr. Murali, Assistant Director of the Department of Technical Education.

Inaugural Ceremony:

The event began with a formal inauguration ceremony by lighting the lamp, welcome speech by Dr.N.Hemalatha, Principal, Sradar Patel College and Following addressing of the guests.

1. A. Pullaiah, the Secretary of the Department of Technical Education, Government of Telangana, delivered the keynote speech, highlighting the importance of skill development and providing employment opportunities to graduates from technical education institutes. He emphasized the government's commitment to supporting initiatives that enhance the employability of youth, particularly in the rapidly evolving job market.
2. Mr. Swamy, Deputy Director of the Department of Technical Education, expressed his appreciation for the participation of various industries in the job fair and underscored the role of job fairs in creating a direct platform for employers and prospective employees to interact and engage with one another.
3. Mr. Murali, Assistant Director, elaborated on the various training and development programs conducted by the Department of Technical Education to equip students with industry-ready skills. He encouraged students and graduates to leverage such opportunities for career growth.
4. Harinath, Chairman, Sardar Patel College, highlighted the role of the college in fostering a conducive environment for skill development and job placement for its students. He emphasized the importance of such job fairs in bridging the gap between academia and industry. He also expressed his gratitude towards the Department of Technical Education for their continuous support and collaboration in making the event a success and wished for all the job seekers success in their interviews and encouraged them to take full advantage of the opportunities provided by the fair.

Lastly the vote of thanks was given by Dr. M. Amarnath Sharma, Vice principal, Sardar Patel College after which companies room numbers were announced to candidates to attend the recruiting interviews.

The inauguration ceremony was followed by an introduction to the job fair structure, which featured a range of employers from different sectors seeking skilled and trained candidates for various job roles.

Job Fair Highlights:

- Job Opportunities:

29 Companies participate to recruit candidates as per their requirements and Eligibilities. Public Sector Companies like BEL, BHEL, BDL, Mdhani. Etc., also participated in this Centralised Selection / Job Fair

- Candidate Participation:

379 job seekers from various Technical and Non-Technical education backgrounds participated in the event. The fair gave students and fresh graduates an opportunity to interact with prospective employers, submit their resumes, and attend interviews on-site.

- Networking Opportunities:

The fair offered an excellent networking platform for students, professionals, and employers. Many attendees took advantage of the event to discuss future collaboration opportunities, internships, and long-term career prospects.

Key Takeaways:

- The centralized selection and job fair proved to be a major success, with both candidates and employers benefiting from the direct interaction.
- The event served as a significant step towards fulfilling the government's vision of improving employment opportunities for youth in Telangana.
- It underscored the importance of facilitating industry-academia partnerships to enhance job readiness and fill the skill gap.

Conclusion:

The Centralized Selection / Job Fair held on 11th December 2024 marked a significant milestone in supporting skill development and employment within Telangana. With the support of the Department of Technical Education and the participation of numerous industry leaders, the event provided valuable opportunities for both job seekers and employers. It reflected the continued commitment of the government to improving the employability of students and graduates through such focused initiatives. As per the given data by Industries more than 150 Candidates were selected from various streams.

